

WRITE A STORY BASED ON THE 2017 BOOK WEEK THEME ESCAPE TO EVERYWHERE

Competitions for 10-12 and 13-14 year olds

Do you like writing stories?

Enter the Book Links Writing Competition!

Winners will be announced at the StoryArts Festival Ipswich at a free public session with Jack Heath on Tuesday 5th September at Ipswich Grammar School, Darling St, Ipswich commencing at 6pm

Looking for inspiration and some ideas?

Suggested Reading:

300 minutes of Danger by Jack Heath,

The Cut Out by Jack Heath

Escape to the Moon Islands series by Mardi McConnochie

Participate in a FREE online writing workshop:

With the support of The Brisbane School of Distance Education, Book Links' FREE online Writing Workshop with Jack Heath will be delivered via EQ's Collaborate on Tuesday 6 June from 9:30am. This workshop will be aimed at 10-12 year olds though others are welcome to participate. Book online via Trybooking <https://www.trybooking.com/QCAF>
Email us for more details. info@booklinks.org.au

Then:

Write a story on an escape theme. (Limit of 2000 words)

Prizes: $100 First and $50 second, Books signed by Jack Heath and a photo shoot with him if you can come to Ipswich 5 September, an option for the winning entries to be published online on the Book Links website.

Send your entries to: Book Links Qld Inc., C/- QWC, PO BOX 3488, SOUTH BRISBANE QLD 4101 or email to info@booklinks.org.au by 1 August 2017

Include: name, address and age of entrant, email address and phone number

HAVE FUN!